Construction of ADEKA FOODS (ASIA) plant completed — Food business is strengthened in ASIA —

ADEKA FOODS (ASIA) (hereinafter "AFA"), a Malaysian subsidiary of ADEKA Corporation (Representative Director and President: Akio Kohri) announced the completion of its new plant for processed oil and fats as well as held a ceremony in Malaysia on September 8, 2014 to celebrate the new plant's completion.

Approximately 200 people attended the ceremony, including Yang Amat Berhormat Dato` Mohamed Khaled bin Nordin, Chief Minister of Johor.

With the completion of this new plant, ADEKA is targeting the bakery and confectionery markets in Asia—which are expected to grow—to manufacture and sell processed oil and fats leveraging its latest technology.

Going forward, the ADEKA Group will continue raising its competitiveness within Japan and overseas and is accelerating the development of new markets as AFA deepens its relationship with ADEKA in Japan and its branches that are expanding in China, and Singapore.
