ADEKA Group Corporate Governance Guidelines

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 (Purpose)

These guidelines ("Guidelines") are to present the basic policy on corporate governance in ADEKA group ("ADEKA Group"). To realize ADEKA Group's business mission and management policy as defined in Article 2 below, ADEKA Corporation ("ADEKA"), an ultimate parent company of ADEKA Group, shall allocate such roles/functions as deemed necessary therefor to relevant conference bodies, including, but not limited to, the Board of Directors, and other optional committees supporting the Board of Directors, of ADEKA, and indicate action guidelines for directors and Operating Officers (collectively "Officers") as well as employees, and strive to build a corporate governance system which would enable them to organically play their roles respectively. ADEKA Group shall continue to improve, by consistently reviewing, ADEKA Group's corporate governance system in the future as well.

Article 2 (ADEKA Group's business mission and management policy)

ADEKA Group's business mission is to grow in a sustainable way and raise its mid-and-long term corporate value, through provision of material products and solutions using any advanced technologies, and thereby contribute to the creation of well-being and sustainable society. To realize said business mission, the following two management policies are established:

(1) " To be a company that is progressive and dynamic with a keen attitude towards the new changing tide"

This policy means that we aim at "making social contributions through our main lines of business". To this end, we strive to sensitively sense a change in social environment and to provide the society with a useful solution for, by proactively making full use of advanced technologies against, the emerging challenges imposed on chemical/food manufacturers in the aspect of environment and energy, health, security and safety in food, and so on.

(2) " Creating a better future for the people of the world"

This policy means that we aim at "Co-existence and co-prosperity with the civil society". To this end, we strive to harmonize the soundness of our business operations with the global society by taking into consideration in our business the profit of the society surrounding us (= stakeholders) of us, and to sustainably grow together with the society.

Article 3 (Relationship with the Corporate Governance Code)

1. ADEKA Group shall enhance a corporate governance level of whole ADEKA Group, under the recognition that it is important for us to build better corporate governance.
2. ADEKA, a corporation listed on the Prime Market of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, shall respect, and make an effort to comply with, the basic principle, rules and complement rules as stipulated in the Corporate Governance Code established by the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

Chapter II Organization

Article 4 (Organizational framework of ADEKA)

ADEKA, a Company with Board of Directors and a Company with Audit and Supervisory Committee, shall establish, in addition to its Board of Directors and its Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Management Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Independent Committee as optional conference bodies as well as an optional Independent Advisory Committee where appropriate.

Article 5 (Role and responsibility of Board of Directors)

1. The Board of Directors, an organization to play the most important role in building the corporate governance system ADEKA strives to achieve, shall bear, in addition to those stipulated in the Article of Incorporation and the Board of Directors Regulations of ADEKA, mainly the following roles and responsibilities:
 - (1) To build and regularly verify a workable corporate governance/ organization of management;
 - (2) To build and regularly verify a workable internal control system;
 - (3) Formation of, and permeation into ADEKA Group's Officers and employees of, shared values and a good corporate culture to be shared between said Officers and employees, including, but not limited to, the business mission, the management policy and the mid-and-long term visions;
 - (4) To steer and adjust the management strategy, taking into consideration long-term problems, changes in business environment/market, and the profit of important stakeholders;
 - (5) To secure management resources sufficient for realizing the business mission, the management policy and the management strategy;
 - (6) To appoint, evaluate, and set goals for, representative directors and Operating Officers (collectively "Managements");
 - (7) To secure such work environments as can fully exhibit the ability of Managements and employees;

- (8) To train successors of Managements;
- (9) To set key performance indicator (KPI) for each department/strategic business unit (SBU);
- (10) To promote compliance and risk management, by maintaining and improving the training programs and the whistle-blowing System for compliance and risk management;
- (11) To supervise subsidiaries;
- (12) To secure opportunity for constructive communication with shareholders;
- (13) Analysis of cause for, and review countermeasures against, proposals offered by ADEKA for which a considerable number of negative votes have been casted; and
- (14) Improvement in or relating to the Board of Directors, in order for the Board of Directors to effectively play any of the roles listed above.

2. The outline of the authorities of the Board of Directors, and the scope of the delegation of authorities to Managements or other business executors from the Board of Directors shall be set forth in Exhibit 1.

Article 6 (Composition of the Board of Directors)

The number of Directors shall be less than eighteen (18) as stipulated in the Article of Incorporation but should be limited to the necessary minimum number in order for the Board of Directors to make decisions speedily in a mobile manner. In order for Directors to effectively fulfill their roles and responsibilities, the composition of Directors shall be as follows, in principle:

- (1) At least one third (1/3) of the Directors shall be External Directors ("Independent External Directors") who meet the "Criteria for determining independence of External Directors" set forth in Exhibit 2 (Functions/roles expected to be fulfilled by External Directors ; and Criteria for determining independence of External Directors). The Head Independent External Directors shall be appointed among the Independent External Directors by mutual election, as appropriate.
- (2) Since embracing various values helps us to fulfill our business mission and management policy in this global society where types of business have diversified and global business development is accelerating, ADEKA shall, in nominating candidates for Directors, make an effort to secure diversity of members of the Board of Directors, with fairness and a wide field of vision.

Article 7 (Management of the Board of Directors)

In order for Directors to effectively fulfill their roles and responsibilities, the Board of Directors shall be managed as follows: Matters concerning management of the Board of Directors shall be stipulated in the Board of Directors Regulations.

(1) Determination of annual schedule

ADEKA shall, at the end of every year, determine an annual schedule of the Board of Directors' meeting to be held in the following year. The Secretariat to Board of Directors ("Secretariat") shall arrange said annual schedule to maximize the number of expected attendees to the Board of Directors' meeting.

(2) Chairman

The Chairman of Board of Directors shall perform his/her duties, under the recognition that it is one of the Chairman's duties to elicit attendees' opinions as many as possible for a free and open-minded discussion between attendees.

(3) Determination of agenda and bills

The Chairman shall, based on the request for deliberation in the Board of Directors' meeting submitted by respective Directors, determine agenda and bills for the Board of Directors' meeting, and give a convocation notice to each Director no later than two days prior to the day of the meeting as stipulated in the Company Law and the Company's Board of Director Regulations. And, in order to enable each Director to make a full consideration on the bills in advance and to activate the discussion in the Board of Directors' meeting, the Chairman shall make it an operational rule to give a convocation notice no later than one (1) week prior to the day of the meeting.

(4) Preparations in advance

(a) To give each Director sufficient time for consideration in advance, materials necessary for judging the agenda and bills for the Board of Directors' meeting shall be given to each Director no later than one (1) week prior to the day of the meeting (by two (2) days prior to the day of the meeting at the latest).

(b) Each Director shall attend the Board of Directors' meeting after a prior close consideration, and if considering that materials given in advance are not enough, request additional information or materials or conduct necessary researches by him/herself. Executive officers or other persons concerned shall accede to said request or cooperate in said research.

(5) Referring bills to the optional Independent Advisory Committee for advice

In making an important operational decision, the Board of Directors shall secure objectivity, transparency and fairness in the decision-making, by going through the following procedure before the deliberation in the Board of Directors' meeting:

(a) Bills concerning a nomination of candidates for Directors, appointment of Operating Officers, as well as remunerations for Directors (excluding the Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Operating Officers shall be referred to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Remunerations for the Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members shall be determined by mutual consultation among the Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.

(b) For an important operational decision, it shall be referred to the optional Independent Advisory Committee to be established from time to time for advice, where appropriate.

(6) Minutes

For the business of the Board of Directors' meeting, minutes stating the record of proceedings, the result thereof and other matters stipulated by laws and regulations shall be prepared.

In addition, with respect to any matters for which bills have referred to an optional Independent Advisory Committee for advice, and any recommendation or advice, etc. has been issued by the optional Independent Advisory Committee, the contents of said advice, etc. shall be entered in the minutes of the Board of Directors' meeting, or a document which contains the contents of said advice, etc. shall be attached to the minutes; provided, however, that this shall not apply if a majority of the members of the optional Independent Advisory Committee determine that said entry or attachment is not required.

(7) Use of outside experts

When the Board of Directors deems it necessary in light of the importance of bills to be deliberated in the Board of Directors' meeting, or the securement of transparency, fairness and appropriateness of decision-making, then opinions and advice of outside professionals, including, but not limited to, attorneys at law and certified public accountants, shall be actively used.

Article 8 (Meetings of only External Directors)

Exhibit 8 Outline of the Whistle-blowing System

ADEKA shall operate the Whistle-blowing System, as follows:

- ADEKA shall provide three types of routes for whistle-blowing: (i) a basic route for making a whistle-blowing to the Compliance Promotion Committee via the Compliance Promotion Responsible Manager or the Compliance Promotion Manager of each workplace; (ii) a direct route for making a whistle-blowing directly to the Compliance Promotion Committee; and (iii) an external route for making a whistle-blowing to the Compliance Promotion Committee via outside lawyers or external reception services.
- ADEKA shall strive to secure anonymity of whistle-blowers and protect whistle-blowers, as follows:

Article 4 (System for handling of whistle-blowing)

2. Whistle-blowing and consultation thereof may be made anonymously. A person who desires to make a whistle-blowing or consultation thereof anonymously shall use the external hot-line and state to the effect that he/she desires anonymity. Upon receiving a request for anonymity from a whistle-blower or consulter, the external hot-line shall not report the name of said whistle-blower or consulter to ADEKA.

Article 10 (Protection of whistle-blowers)

1. ADEKA shall not dismiss or otherwise treat disadvantageously any whistle-blower, etc. on the grounds of his/her whistle-blowing or consultation thereof.
 2. ADEKA shall take appropriate measures to prevent a working environment of whistle-blower, etc. from deteriorating on the grounds of his/her whistle-blowing or consultation thereof. In the event any person (including, but not limited to, a superior or colleague of the whistle-blower, etc.) treats disadvantageously or harasses the whistle-blower, etc., ADEKA may impose disciplinary punishment on the person in accordance with the Work Regulations.
- Upon receiving a whistle-blowing, the Compliance Promotion Committee shall promptly conduct investigation on the fact and take prompt countermeasures, and report to the whistle-blower the result of said investigation or countermeasures. If the problem requires time to be resolved in light of nature of the case, the Compliance Promotion Committee shall report to the whistle-blower the progress situation, as appropriate.
 - Details of the Whistle-blowing System shall be stipulated in the "Group Compliance Regulations" and the "Compliance Whistle-blowing Regulations".

Exhibit 9 Policy for dialogues with shareholders

ADEKA shall develop a system for, and work on, promoting dialogues with shareholders in accordance with the following policies:

- (1) ADEKA shall attach importance to constructive dialogues with shareholders, and make an effort to have dialogues with shareholders through the executives such as the Representative Directors and the officer in charge of the Finance/Accounting Department on various occasions.
- (2) As a framework to promote constructive dialogues with shareholders, ADEKA shall designate the Legal Affairs & Publicity Department as a responsible department in charge of SR (shareholders relations) and IR (investors relations) and designate the officer in charge of the Legal Affairs & Publicity Department as a Supervisory Manager thereof.
- (3) Mainly, the Corporate Planning & Strategy Division and the Finance & Accounting Department shall, as a department to assist dialogues with shareholders, cooperate with the Legal Affairs & Publicity Department in preparing materials for the IR meetings, and where appropriate, the officers in charge of both departments shall attend the IR meetings. Where appropriate, any structure for cooperation with the sales department, the research department and the production department shall also be built in connection with themes to be taken up in the dialogues with shareholders.
- (4) To identify shareholders/investors with whom ADEKA can have constructive communication which would contribute to raise ADEKA's sustainable and mid-and-long term corporate value, ADEKA shall regularly carry out a substantial shareholders survey.
- (5) To have more dialogues with shareholders, ADEKA shall expand the opportunity to have dialogues with shareholders, including, but not limited to, holding small meetings, regularly holding IR results briefing as well as conducting individual interview with shareholders/investors. The General Shareholders' Meetings and the shareholders meeting held thereafter shall also be actively used as an opportunity of dialogues with shareholders.
- (6) Opinions and concerns of shareholders grasped through dialogues with shareholders shall be reported by General Manager of the Legal Affairs & Publicity Department to the officers in charge of the Legal Affairs & Publicity Department and the Representative Director.

Important opinions and concerns of shareholders grasped through dialogues with shareholders shall be reported by the officers in charge of the Legal Affairs & Publicity Department to the Board of Directors.

- (7) A person who has a dialogue with shareholders or corporate investors shall strictly manage the insider information, and thoroughly comply with the fair disclosure principle so as not to cause any digital divide or imbalance with other general shareholders or investors.

Exhibit 10 Basic policy for the capital policy

As a basic policy for the capital policy, ADEKA shall, maintaining its stable financial condition, strive to make an investment for its mid-and-long term growth and secure the balance with proper shareholder return.

ADEKA shall recognize its optimum capital structure, and adopt a shareholder return policy according to said optimum capital structure. While maintaining its stable dividend, by varying the amount of dividend according to the profit in each term with the dividend payout ratio fixed, ADEKA shall gradually raise the dividend level and return the benefit to shareholders, by actively investing in growing markets and growing fields, and raising its mid-and-long term business performance.

Exhibit 11 The policy for cross shareholding and the principle for exercise of voting rights in cross-held shares

<Policy for cross shareholding>

The Company shall hold shares in companies that are expected to improve the Company's business performance and corporate value, and strengthen the Company's financial base through capital tie-up, business collaborations such as joint research and development of new technology, etc., strengthening business relationship or maintaining continuous, friendly, and stable relationship with invested companies and that may contribute to business development of the Company over the mid-and-long term.

When newly acquiring shares of a business partner of the Company, the appropriateness of holding such shares shall be determined based on the Company's decision making procedures by the person having decision authority (the President & Chief Executive Officer, or the Officers in charge of the relevant departments as appropriate according to the value of the stocks), who shall make decision from the perspective of whether strengthening business relationship with the said business partner will contribute to the improvement of the Company's business performance and corporate value, taking into account the current and future profitability, etc. of the said business partner.

Regarding shares of business partners held by the Company, the appropriateness of holding shares for all issues shall be verified every year by comprehensively considering the reasonableness of holding such shares based on stock price trends, dividends, recent major financial results, etc. The Finance and Accounting Department shall confirm with the relevant departments the necessity and meaningfulness of holding each share in accordance with the current trading conditions in light of the objectives at the time of acquiring such shares. The results of the verification shall be reported to the Board of Directors, and efforts shall be made to reduce cross-held shares by selling stocks for which the reasonableness of holding is no longer recognized as reasonable.

<Principle for exercise of the voting rights in cross-held shares>

In exercising any voting rights in cross-held shares, the Company shall designate a department in charge of exercising the voting rights in cross-held shares, according to the relationship with the invested company.

The department in charge of exercising the voting rights in cross-held shares shall properly exercise the voting rights, by reporting the contents of the proposal of the invested company to the officer in charge of the department and obtaining the consent from the officer in advance.

For proposals deemed to possibly prejudice the relationship with the invested company as well as the invested company's corporate value seriously or deemed to affect ADEKA's interest as a shareholder or the Company's business development over the mid-and-long term, the Company shall make decisions of approval or disapproval after carefully examining these factors.
