ADEKA Corporation

Participated in the *Intellectual Property Open Access Declaration Against COVID-19

ADEKA Corporation (President and Chief Executive Officer : Hidetaka Shirozume) participated in the Intellectual Property Open Access Declaration Against COVID-19 (Open COVID Declaion).

This Declaration declares that intellectual property rights will not be exercised for a certain period of time without seeking any indemnity or compensation for activities related to the development, manufacture, sale, etc. aimed at ending the spread of a new coronavirus infection. We agreed to this intent and expressed, under the conditions stated in this declaration, the non-exercise of patent right, utility model right, design right and copyright for a certain period of time.

ADEKA aims to improve everyday life around the world through the provision of SOZAI (our Excellent Vallue; products, technologies and services) under the our corporate slogan of Add Goodness. While taking measures to prevent the spread of infection, we will continue to take various measures to support the stable supply of products and services, as well as to help our SOZAI contribute to the convergence of new coronavirus infections.
